Shelly Register

Guardian and Trust Officer

Shelly Register serves as a Guardian and Trust Officer at Guardianships Services of Nevada. Shelly provides personal and financial decision making, trust and estate administration, and detailed care planning and case management. Shelly offers an extensive legal background with broad-based professional experience working with protected persons. Shelly brings steadfast dedication and well-considered guidance and representation to her clients. She is also skilled in working within disability and veterans' benefits systems to her clients' best interests. Shelly regularly represents before courts in both trust and guardianship matters.

Prior to joining Dunham Trust Company, Shelly was a principal of Guardianship Services of Nevada, Inc. for 13 years. Shelly is a graduate of the University of Missouri-Columbia with a Bachelor of Science in Political Science and earned her law degree from the University of Missouri-Columbia School of Law. Shelly has acted as investigator with the Missouri Attorney General's Office, as legal counsel to the Missouri Department of Social Services, worked with at-risk populations for eight years, and served as regulatory law judge with the Missouri Public Service Commission. In Nevada, Shelly was a guardian case manager with the Washoe County Public Guardian's Office for three years. She has been a private professional guardian since February 2006. Shelly holds the distinction as a National Certified Guardian through the Center for Guardianship Certification (2003), and is a member of the National Guardianship Association and past President of the Nevada Guardianship Association (NVGA).
